

Return to Willow Lake

by Susan Wiggs

About the Book

#1 New York Times bestselling author Susan Wiggs brings readers home to Avalon, an idyllic town nestled on the tranquil shores of Willow Lake. There, one woman will rediscover her family and her dreams, and find a surprising new love...

Sonnet Romano's life is almost perfect. She has the ideal career, the ideal boyfriend, and has just been offered a prestigious fellowship. There's nothing more a woman wants --- except maybe a baby...brother?

When Sonnet finds out her mother is unexpectedly expecting, and that the pregnancy is high risk, she puts everything on hold --- the job, the fellowship, the boyfriend --- and heads home to Avalon. Once her mom is out of danger, Sonnet intends to pick up her life where she left off. But when her mother receives a devastating diagnosis, Sonnet must decide what really matters in life, even if that means staying in Avalon and taking a job that forces her to work alongside her biggest, and maybe her sweetest, mistake --- award-winning filmmaker Zach Alger. So Sonnet embarks on a summer of laughter and tears, of old dreams and new possibilities and of finding the home of her heart.

At once heartbreaking and uplifting, RETURN TO WILLOW LAKE plumbs the deepest corners of the human heart, exploring the bonds of family, the perils and rewards of love, and the true meaning of home. Profoundly emotional and resonant, this is Susan Wiggs at her finest.

Discussion Guide

1. Sonnet's mom, Nina, cautions her not to get so busy she forgets to fall in love. In light of what later befalls Nina, how does this advice resonate with Sonnet?
2. What's the craziest thing you've ever done at a wedding? Does Sonnet's impulsive act at Daisy's wedding make sense, given where she is in her life? What would you have done in that situation?
3. Do you keep checklists? What's the one thing on your life's "to-do" list that you can never seem to accomplish, even though you intend to? What is blocking Sonnet from checking off "fall in love"?
4. How has Sonnet's personal history formed her character? What keeps her from seeing Orlando for who he is until it's almost too late?
5. In what ways does Sonnet think Zach is all wrong for her? What makes him exactly right for her? What did it take for her to finally see that?

6. Jezebel is larger than life, but in what ways does she reveal herself to be all too human? What is it about her that draws both Sonnet and Zach? Did she help or hinder their relationship?
7. What's your favorite reality TV show? If you could design a reality show of your own, what would it be like?
8. Has your mother ever gotten really sick? What was your emotional reaction? How did the experience cause you to grow and change? How did Nina's illness cause Sonnet to change?
9. What do you suppose Sonnet's relationship with her half-brother will be like, going forward?
10. At the end of the story, Sonnet's relationship with her father has shifted. What's your prediction for what it will be like in the future?
11. What will Sonnet and Zach's first fight be about, do you suppose? And what tools do they have to survive it?

Author Bio

Susan Wiggs' life is all about family, friends...and fiction. She lives at the water's edge on an island in Puget Sound, and in good weather, she commutes to her writers' group in a 21-foot motorboat. She's been featured in the national media, including NPR and USA Today, has given programs for the US Embassies in Buenos Aires and Montevideo, and is a popular speaker locally, nationally, internationally, and on the high seas.

From the very start, her writings have illuminated the everyday dramas of ordinary people. Her books celebrate the power of love, the timeless bonds of family and the fascinating nuances of human nature. Today, she is an international bestselling, award-winning author, with millions of copies of her books in print in numerous countries and languages. According to Publishers Weekly, Wiggs writes with "refreshingly honest emotion," and the Salem Statesman Journal adds that she is "one of our best observers of stories of the heart [who] knows how to capture emotion on virtually every page of every book." Booklist characterizes her books as "real and true and unforgettable."

Her novels have appeared in the #1 spot on the New York Times bestseller list, and have captured readers' hearts around the globe. She is a three-time winner of the RITA Award, the highest honor given for a work of romantic fiction.

The author is a former teacher, a Harvard graduate, an avid hiker, an amateur photographer, a good skier and terrible golfer, yet her favorite form of exercise is curling up with a good book.
