

The Venus Fix

by M. J. Rose

About the Book

International bestselling author M. J. Rose returns with the third thrilling book in her Butterfield Institute series featuring sex therapist/reluctant crime solver Dr. Morgan Snow. THE VENUS FIX follows Dr. Snow as she strives to make the connection between murdered online Web cam sex performers and her clients./>

As one of New York's top sex therapists, Dr. Morgan Snow sees everything from the abused to the depraved. From high-profile clients with twisted obsessions to courageous survivors, the Butterfield Institute is the sanctuary to heal battered souls.

Morgan's newest patient is a powerful, influential man --- secretly addicted to watching Internet Web cam pornography. But he's not alone in those desires. Morgan's also working with a group of high school teenagers equally and dangerously obsessed with these real-time fantasies. Fantasies that are all too accessible.

Discussion Guide

1. The Venus Fix stands for The Venus fixation --- teenage boys fixation with girls on the web and the teenage girls fixation as they try to compete with the webcam girls. Is this a danger of the modern age or is it a new version of something that's always been around. Are kids actually in more danger today?
2. Morgan is torn between wanting to help the police and doctor/patient confidentiality. Do you think she made the right decision in keeping to her oath and respecting Amanda's secret?
3. In The Venus Fix, Morgan's personal life impinges, to some degree, on her professional life. How is the love plot --- her interest in Noah and hers in him --- incorporated into the suspense plot?
4. Stella Dobson has strong feelings about internet pornography which lead to her doing something terrible wrong --- but can you sympathize with her position on internet porn?
5. As the plot proceeds, is it possible to guess or deduce the killer? If so, at what point is it possible, and on what grounds?
6. What do you think should be done about teenagers and internet porn?.
7. T. Meyers - who reviewed The Venus Fix - for THE HUFFINGTON POST said: "A good story has the power to make us understand things in a way that even the most graphic facts cannot. With The Venus Fix, the third book in her compelling Butterfield Institute series, M.J. Rose has done something remarkable. She's written a thriller which gives us not only a momentary scare--an intake of breath--but a lasting one."

Do you think this story helped you understand internet porn addiction in a different way? Did it give you any insights you didn't have before?

8. Critic David J. Montgomery said: "The plot of The Venus Fix is fresh and intriguing, but it is the characters that push this thriller to such a high level. The relationships that fill it -- mother-daughter, doctor-patient, girlfriend-boyfriend -- are so well-developed and so real that the story takes on considerable power and poignancy. "

How did you feel about the characters and their relationships in this novel? Did you feel this kind of depth of characterization made you more invested in the book? Did it make the book more memorable for you?

M.J. Rose, is the international bestselling author of ten novels: LIP SERVICE, IN FIDELITY, FLESH TONES, SHEET MUSIC, LYING IN BED, THE HALO EFFECT, THE DELILAH COMPLEX, THE VENUS FIX, THE REINCARNATIONIST and THE MEMORIST.

Rose is also the co-author with Angela Adair Hoy of HOW TO PUBLISH AND PROMOTE ONLINE, and with Doug Clegg of BUZZ YOUR BOOK.

She is a founding member and board member of International Thriller Writers and the founder of the first marketing company for authors: AuthorBuzz.com. She runs two popular blogs: Buzz, Balls & Hype and Backstory.

Getting published has been an adventure for Rose who self-published LIP SERVICE late in 1998 after several traditional publishers turned it down. Editors had loved it, but didn't know how to position it or market it since it didn't fit into any one genre.

Frustrated, but curious and convinced that there was a readership for her work, she set up a web site where readers could download her book for $9.95 and began to seriously market the novel on the Internet.

After selling over 2500 copies (in both electronic and trade paper format) Lip Service became the first e-book and the first self-published novel chosen by the LiteraryGuild/Doubleday Book Club as well as being the first e-book to go on to be published by a mainstream New York publishing house.

Rose has been profiled in Time magazine, Forbes, The New York Times, Business 2.0, Working Woman, Newsweek and New York Magazine.

Rose has appeared on "The Today Show," Fox News, "The Jim Lehrer News Hour" and features on her have appeared in dozens of magazines and newspapers in the U.S. and abroad, including USA Today, Stern, L'Official, Poets and Writers and Publishers Weekly.

Rose graduated from Syracuse University and spent the '80s in advertising. She was the Creative Director of Rosenfeld Sirowitz and Lawson and she has a commercial in the Museum of Modern Art in NYC.

She lives in Connecticut with Doug Scofield, a composer, and their very spoiled dog, Winka.
